

THOUGH HE MAY NOW APPEAR IN MORE
CONSPICUOUS SOVEREIGNTY, HE IS NO
UPSTART SOVEREIGNTY.

Charles Spurgeon

The LORD reigns! He is robed in majesty;
The LORD is robed, enveloped in strength.
The world is firmly established;
it cannot be shaken.

² Your throne has been established
from the beginning;
You are from eternity.

³ The floods have lifted up, LORD,
the floods have lifted up their voice;
the floods lift up their pounding waves.

⁴ Greater than the roar of many waters—
the mighty breakers of the sea—
the LORD on high is majestic.

⁵ LORD, Your testimonies are completely reliable;
holiness is the beauty of Your house
for all the days to come.

ROBED IN MAJESTY

There are several words that believers use regularly that we barely understand the true meaning and theology behind the word. Majesty is one of those concepts.

The majesty of God speaks to His strength. He is robed in majesty. His throne is established. This gives Him several rights.

First, God has the right to rule. He is the creator of all. His omnipotence cannot be thwarted.

Second, God has the right to be unquestioned. None of us know as He knows, nor creates as He creates.

Finally, God has the right to be worshipped.

Perhaps Bill and Gloria Gaither said it best:

Majesty
Kingdom Authority
Flow from His throne
Unto His own
His anthem raise.
